FOUR DEFENDANTS INDICTED FOR COMMITTING A HOME INVASION ROBBERY DRESSED AS POLICE OFFICERS

SAN FRANCISCO – Four Northern California residents were charged by a federal grand jury in San Francisco with robbery affecting interstate commerce, conspiracy to commit robbery affecting interstate commerce, possession of a firearm in furtherance of the robbery, conspiracy to possess with the intent to distribute marijuana, impersonating an officer and making a search or arrest while impersonating an officer, United States Attorney Melinda Haag announced.

Michael Puckett, 45, of Petaluma, Calif., made his initial appearance in federal court this morning and has been detained. He is next scheduled to appear in court tomorrow for identification of counsel. Terry Jacksen, 46, also of Petaluma, Eric Mendonca, 43, of Lake County, Calif., and Jack Pollack, 54 of Lake County, made their initial appearances yesterday. Mendonca was released on a $50,000 bond. Jacksen and Pollack remain in custody.

According to the indictment and criminal complaint, the defendants conspired to commit a home invasion robbery in Lake County, Calif., on Oct. 4, 2012. On that date, Pollack cased a residence before Jacksen, dressed up as a Lake County Sheriff's Office Deputy carrying a holstered revolver and wearing a white cowboy hat, knocked on the door and informed the occupants that he was working with the Bureau of Alcohol, Tobacco, Firearms and Explosives and was there to conduct a search. Jacksen then handcuffed and zip-tied the occupants before searching the house and stealing 48 marijuana plants. The complaint alleges that Eric Mendonca, a former Petaluma Police Officer and Lake County Sheriff's Office Deputy, provided Jacksen with the police uniforms. During a search of Mendonca and Jacksen's property on Dec. 19, 2012, law-enforcement authorities located a holstered revolver, a set of Lake County Sheriff's Office handcuffs, a white cowboy hat, various firearms and a cellular telephone containing images of Jacksen and Puckett posing in Lake County Sheriff's Office uniforms with firearms hours before the robbery. A search of Pollack's residence uncovered approximately twenty pounds of marijuana.
