Upon arrival, officers found a male lying on the floor. He was being attended to by patrons of the bar, due to bleeding wounds to his neck/throat area. A second subject was located fighting with security and other bar patrons. The security staff was trying to detain the subject, later identified as Clinton Robert Myers (27 years old of Eureka), who was bleeding heavily from the face. Officers were advised by witnesses that Myers had stabbed the second subject in the throat.

Medical personnel arrived on scene moments later and transported the victim to St. Joseph ER for treatment for his wounds. Myers was also transported to St. Joseph ER for treatment, prior to being taken to the Eureka Police Department for questioning.

Detectives and an evidence technician were summoned to the scene to process the scene for evidence and interview the large number of witnesses to the assault.
