FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Subject: Warrant Arrest – Lance Borgner & Christina Higgins

Contact: Det. Sgt. Bill Nova @ 707-268-5261

Or

Det. Sgt. Mike Guy @ 441-4372

On 2.12.14, Eureka Police Detectives received information from the Arcata Police Department that Lance Borgner may be staying at a motel in the 4000 block of Broadway.

Detective from the Criminal Investigations Section and Problem Oriented Policing Unit immediately began investigation and validated this information. Detectives subsequently took Borgner and his girlfriend – Christina Higgins – into custody without incident.

Borgner was arrested on various multi-jurisdictional charges and arrest warrants.

Higgins was arrested for an outstanding local warrant.

Borgner is on active CDC parole for burglary as well as on local summary probation for vandalism and possession of drug paraphernalia. He was wanted on two felony warrants for parole violation and 20001(a) VC (hit and run with injury), as well as two misdemeanor warrants for driving with a suspended license and vandalism. Additionally, Borgner was wanted by EPD on fresh charges of felony reckless evading of a peace officer and felony hit and run with injury among other offenses.

Borgner was wanted by the Arcata Police Department for felony reckless evading related to an APD vehicle pursuit with him on Alliance Road in the early morning hours of 2/10/14. Borgner was driving a black Mercedes at the time.
