NEWS RELEASE

Wednesday July 20, 2011

For Immediate Release:

On 7/20/11 at approximately 04:20 am, a Eureka Police Department Officer was on foot patrol in the Ft. Humboldt area and observed a subject loitering near one of the State Park buildings.

The Officer watched the subject – later identified as Thomas D. Jones, transient Eureka – as he began trying to pry open a door to one of the park buildings.

The Officer then confronted Jones and subsequently took Jones into custody after additional Officers arrived on-scene.

It was determined that Jones was on “Non-Revocable State Parole,” meaning he had been released from prison unsupervised.

Additionally, Jones was also found to be on three counts of “Summary,” Court, probation.

Jones was booked into the Humboldt County Correctional Facility on the following charges:

PC 664/459 Attempted Burglary
PC 466 Possession of Burglary Tools
PC1203.2 Violation of Probation
H&S 11364 Possession of Drug Paraphernalia
B&P 4140 Possession of Hypodermic Syringes
