They told the deputy they were walking near the intersection of Myrtle Avenue and Lucas Avenue, Eureka when an arrow struck the sidewalk directly between them, causing the arrow to break. The victims provided the deputy with the arrow, which was a hunting type of arrow. The victims had no idea why or who may have shot the arrow at them. They said there was a grey Nissan Altima driving by about the time the arrow stuck the ground. The Altima had four or five people in it. They did not know whether the arrow came from the vehicle.
