At this time the deputy notice a black, Lexus, SUV parked on the Pedrazzini boat ramp. The deputy could see a female sitting in the passenger seat leaning over towards the driver's seat. The deputy could not see anyone sitting in the driver's seat.

The deputy then made contact with the female in the vehicle to see if she was ok. When the deputy approached the vehicle he could see a male subject sitting in the driver's seat reclined all the way back. When the deputy made contact with the occupants of the vehicle he could smell the odor of marijuana emitting from inside of the vehicle.

The deputy identified the female passenger as 21 year old Yisele Bautista and the male driver as 29 year old Soua Yang. The deputy then checked both subjects through his communications center for any possible warrants or probation clauses. The deputy located (2) one pound bags of marijuana inside of a duffle bag in the back seat of the vehicle. The deputy also located a glass smoking pipe for methamphetamine and a useable amount of methamphetamine inside of the vehicle. Yang was placed under arrest for possession of methamphetamine, possession of marijuana for sales and possession of an illegal gun magazine. Both Yang and Bautista were transported to the Humboldt County Correctional Facility in Eureka. During the booking process, Correctional Deputies located 2 grams of methamphetamine and 2 grams of cocaine hidden on Bautista body.
