The victim said she made tamales and took them to the Farmers Market in Garberville today to make extra money. The victim said she made somewhere between $160 to $170 dollars selling tamales. The victim said she then returned home today to her residence located at the Deerhorn Trailer Park, Phillipsville. The victim told the deputy, she then sat down at the table to eat some food. The victim said, Osicka approached her from behind and wrapped a styrofoam/plastic type wrap around her head and face. The victim said, Osicka used both of his hands around her throat and was strangling her. The victim said she could not breathe and Osicka was yelling at her to give him the money. Osicka let go of her and she was able to run out of her residence for help to a local business in Phillipsville. The victim said she felt like during the strangulation, she felt like she was going to die.

The deputy then went to the victim's trailer located inside the Deerhorn Trailer Park. The deputy located Osicka at the trailer.
