On Monday, 07-11-2016 at 11:30 a.m. Humboldt County Sheriff's Office Deputies were dispatched to the Hoopa Mini Mart in Hoopa, regarding an assault with a deadly weapon that just occurred. When deputies arrived on scene they learned from witnesses that the suspect, 29 year old, Cody Lee Meyers had attacked a 50 year old male victim with a machete.

Deputies immediately checked the area for Meyers, but they could not locate him. The victim, because of his injuries from the assault was immediately transported to a local hospital in the Eureka area. The victim is currently in stable condition. Through their investigation deputies learned that Meyers and the victim knew each other. It appears that Meyers attacked the victim over a personal matter between the two of them.
