

For Immediate Release

Contact Kerry McNamee

(516)413-2817

kem143@humboldt.edu

Siren's Song Summer Solstice Celebration:

A Pints for Non-Profits benefiting North Star Quest Camp

Join the talented ladies of North Star Quest Camp on Friday June 21st from 6pm to late to greet the summer solstice with music, beer, and fun. Live performances by RaveOn Beautiful, Josephine Johnson and Scotch Wiggly. The Siren's Song Tavern will donate a portion of draft beer sales to North Star Quest Camp for Girls. No cover charge but donations accepted & Camp pins & magnets for sale.

RaveOn Beautiful is a counselor to North Star Quest Camp & musical member of the Marz Project. You can check out her original soulful electronic beats at <http://soundcloud.com/rave-onbeautiful>. Josephine Johnson is a gifted song writer and well known musician in the community. Scotch Wiggly is a psychedelic rock band that has been rockin' round the block or two. The Siren's Song Tavern 325 Second Street in Old Town Eureka next to the Romano Gabriel Sculpture Garden.

This is fundraiser benefits the North Star Quest Camp for Girls, a camp dedicated to helping girls entering 6th, 7th, and 8th grades find their inner North Star and develop the confidence and self respect needed to navigate the stormy waters of adolescence. North Star Quest Camp takes Campers on a first come first serve basis regardless of ability to pay, more information located at www.northstarquest.org

Contact Kerry McNamee

(516)413-2817

kem143@humboldt.edu

#