NEW AT THE BARNYARD AT THE ZOO

Eureka, CA - Come join the fun on Saturday, June 18th at Noon, when Frank Jager, Eureka Mayor, and Jay Bahner, Eureka Rotary President, will be cutting the "ribbon" to the new Goat Gazebo and Kidz play areas in and around the Barnyard.

Watch our three Nigerian Dwarf Kidz climb, teeter-totter and play on a beautiful structure built by Don L. Smith Construction. There are new play areas for human Kidz, too!

What: Barnyard Additions Ribbon Cutting
When: Saturday, June 18
11:30 - Refreshments at the Barnyard
12:00 - Ribbon Cutting
Noon onwards - Goat and kid shenanigans
Where: Sequoia Park Zoo, 3414 W Street, Eureka
How much: Regular admission, Free for Zoo members

This project was funded with a generous grant from the Ruth & Sign Smith Endowment Fund, Eureka Rotary Club.

The Barnyard opened in 2003, and since then has remained the most popular and beloved area of the Zoo for families. Young kids pet domestic animals, brush the goats, help the zoo keepers rake, watch bees bringing pollen back to the hive, and bond with animals.

The generous support of Eureka Rotary Club has provided the zoo the opportunity to refresh this area, and to create more play and exploration opportunities for human children, and climbing areas for goats to show off their amazing climbing skills.

Sequoia Park Zoo inspires conservation of the natural world by instilling wonder, respect and passion for wildlife.
