FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Subject: Search Warrant Served on the 2200 Block of G Street

Contact: PIO Brittany Powell

On March 23, 2018, Eureka Police Department patrol officers with the assistance of the Problem Oriented Policing (POP) unit served a search warrant for 38 year old William Zane Reynolds, his vehicle, and residence on the 2200 block of G Street. The search warrant was obtained in response to an investigation into narcotics and firearms.

Reynolds was contacted in his vehicle near Sonoma and J Streets after a traffic stop for a headlamp violation. Reynolds was transported to his residence by officers. Officers contacted 44 year old Sirrena Lea Harvey inside of the residence. Reynolds and Harvey were detained and remained on scene during the search.

Inside the residence, officers and detectives located 2 firearms, ammunition, evidence of weapons being manufactured, 2.3 ounces of heroin, and 5 grams of methamphetamine.

Reynolds and Harvey were arrested and booked into the Humboldt County Correctional Facility for possession of controlled substances for sales, possession of controlled substances while armed, and maintaining a drug house. Reynolds was additionally booked for committing a felony while out on bail.
