On 8/18/2019 at 12:12 p.m., EPD officers responded to a business in the 600 block of W. Harris for a report of a subject with a knife.

Upon arrival, officers contacted a male located outside the business. The male, later identified as Anthony Andrew Glass, 18, of Eureka, was detained and searched. Two large pocket knives were found in his possession.

Glass had been observed shoplifting from the business and was asked to leave. A heated argument started as Glass was escorted from the store by an employee. Glass threatened to stab the employee.

While outside the business, Glass displayed a knife at the employee and stated that he was going to stab him. After a short period of time, Glass closed the pocket knife and placed it in his pocket.

Glass was arrested and booked in to the Humboldt County Correctional Facility for Making Criminal Threats (PC 422) and Brandishing a Deadly Weapon (PC 417 (A)(1)).
