PRESS RELEASE

On Tuesday October 11th, 2022, the Humboldt County Drug Task Force (HCDTF), received information that a package containing one pound of methamphetamine had been located after its arrival at a Eureka parcel center. Agents wrote a search warrant for the package and anybody who attempted to pick up the package. The HCDTF initiated a surveillance at the business and identified the receiver of the package when they arrived. Agents detained Jasmine Mahina Lucero Kahoalii (44 years old from Eureka).

Kohoalii and her vehicle were searched and additional quantities of methamphetamine, a digital scale, packaging, and a safe with drug price amounts were located. Kahoalii was arrested and booked at the Humboldt County Jail for the below listed charges:

- 11378 H&S Possession of methamphetamine for sale
- 11379 H&S Transportation of methamphetamine

Anyone with information related to this investigation or other narcotics related crimes are encouraged to call the Humboldt County Drug Task Force at 707-267-9976.

Sergeant Matt Tomlin
