Case Number: 201801224 Subject: Felony warrant subject attempts to visit inmate, smuggle drugs

On March 13, 2018, Humboldt County Correctional Facility staff received a tip that felony warrant subject, Cascade Violet Gayman, 21, of Crescent City, was planning to visit an inmate in the facility using false identification.

At about 3:00 p.m. on March 13, Gayman entered the Correctional Facility visiting area and attempted to sign in using a false name. Gayman was placed under arrest. Upon further investigation, correctional deputies learned that Gayman had also attempted to smuggle 12 grams of heroin into the facility via her person.

Gayman was booked into the Correctional Facility on the following charges: possession of a controlled substance, bringing drugs into a correctional institution and violation of probation.
