For Immediate Release:

Arcata Playhouse offers free and discounted tickets to Family Fun Series in Big Top Circus Tent

The Arcata Playhouse celebrates its sixteenth year of presenting the Family Fun Series which runs Saturday, April 2nd through Saturday, April 16th. Thanks to generous sponsorship by local businesses, the Playhouse is able to offer free and low-cost tickets to kids and families to come enjoy a myriad of upcoming events.

All events will be held in a big top circus tent, being installed in the field on 8th street in the Creamery District of Arcata. This opportunity for audiences to safely gather has been provided by a partnership between the City of Arcata and Playhouse Arts, through the Arcata Outdoor Events Grant. The tent will be installed at 12:30 p.m. this coming Sunday, March 27th and will remain throughout the event series.

On Saturday, April 2nd, audiences can enjoy New York-based storyteller David Gonzalez in Cuentos: Tales from the Latino World, performing at 2:00 p.m. and 7:00 p.m. Some tickets have been given to area families through community partnerships with First Five Humboldt and Northcoast Children's Services, and others are available to reserve for $4 each at arcataplayhouse.org.

From Sunday, April 3rd to Thursday, April 7th, families can come enjoy a number of free events. On Sunday, April 3rd, members of the Yurok Tribe bring Native Cultures Day. Ernie Albers Jr. will present storytelling at 3:00 p.m., which will be followed by Ner-er-Ner: Getting to know Local Coastal Natives from 4:00 - 5:00 p.m.

Monday April 4th audiences can come enjoy clown duo Coventry & Kaluza at 6:00 p.m. Tuesday, April 5th will bring an "Open Stage", where young performers can have their moment to shine on the stage in the tent and have a picnic with their family, 5-7 p.m. Wednesday, April 6th kids can craft butterfly wings from 5-7 p.m. On Thursday, April 7th Librarian Sue Parsons will entertain preschoolers with Story Time at 10:00 a.m. Later that day, at 6:00 p.m., families can come enjoy a free film screening of Inside Out with a complimentary catered meal from First Five Humboldt.

Kids and families can get their wiggle on at the Day of Dance Sunday, April 10th. Preschool Movement with Kids in the Hive and Creative Dance starts at 10:00 a.m., which is a free event, followed by 11-12:30 p.m. family Capoeira with Espaço, priced at $15 per person or $25 for a family ticket. From 1-4 p.m. families can enjoy a free World Dance Showcase. The festival culminates on Saturday, April 16th with our annual Cirque du Schwazee, $6 for kids and $12 for adults, no one turned away for lack of funds.

For specific times and ticketing guests can go to arcataplayhouse.org. Some events will require masks.
